

Adult Sunday School

May 12, 2019

Choose to grow your faith in one of our five adult classes, offered between worship services, 9:45–10:45 a.m.

Challenges and Choices – Room 11

Chris Suit will be leading our class for this week and next. Chris writes, “In THE HUMAN ELEMENT, environmental photographer James Balog captures the lives of everyday Americans on the front lines of climate change. His coast-to-coast series of captivating stories inspires us to reevaluate our relationship with the natural world.” We will view and discuss this 78-minute documentary over two the next two Sundays. All are welcome to join us!

Seekers Class – Room 12

This week we will be watching Jean Vanier (in a video presentation) and will reflect on what happens when we pray in a way that breaks us. Too often prayer seeks to change everything around us, except us. What if prayer is a road or “passage” to spiritual growth? We will discuss how prayer changes us and how community is necessary in that change.

Roots and Wings – Community Hall

As we continue our series, Saving Jesus Redux, we will be focusing on “Jesus’ Program: the Kingdom of God.” This was a central focus of Jesus’ preaching and teaching. How would you describe the kingdom of God? Is it here now or in the future? Being a participant in the kingdom of God is part of Jesus’ call to resistance and non-violence. Come join the conversation!

Listening for God Class – Room 6

We will be discussing chapter 3, “High Lonesome: A Spiritual Crisis,” in Braving the Wilderness: The Quest for True Belonging and the Courage to Stand Alone by Brene Brown. This was a New York Times bestseller! She encourages us to consider, “How do we cultivate a true sense of belonging in our communities, organizations, and culture. You are welcome to come listen!

Young Adult Class – East Office (down the hall from the kitchen)

Our Young Adults are on hiatus for the summer, but will resume when OU starts again for fall.
