

Adult Sunday School

July 8th, 2018

Choose to grow your faith in one of our five adult classes, offered between worship services, 9:45–10:45.

Challenges and Choices – Room 11

Marilyn Ogilvie will be giving a presentation on her new book. For the Birds: American Ornithologist Margaret Morse Nice is published by the OU Press and will be available this September. Nice spent 14 years in Norman (1913-1927) where she began her career while caring for her family (husband Blaine and 5 little girls). During her lifetime she produced more than 244 papers, article, and published letters, seven books and book-length monographs; and 3,000 reviews.

Seekers' Class – Room 12

This class is continuing their series this week from The Work of The People titled Different but Not Divided: Practicing a Third Way. For almost 10 years in The Refuge community, we have tried to practice a third option--a Third Way--where instead of fighting for our positions or fleeing for the safe haven of a group that looks, thinks, and believes like us--we live in the tension of our difference. We are different, not divided. It is not for the faint of heart, or those who have prioritized efficiency over relationships. But it is an absolute requirement if you dream of a faith community that is zealous to live. Join us!

Roots and Wings Class– Community Hall

This class made up of mostly parents of young children is continuing their study Painting the Stars: Science, Religion, and an Evolving Faith. Celebrating the communion of science and faith, Painting the Stars explores the promise of evolutionary Christian spirituality.

Listening for God Class – Room 6

This class is continuing their book study from the Center for Action and Contemplation titled Oneing: Religion and Politics. At this point in history, with the current state of political and religious events shifting daily, this edition of Oneing is especially critical. As Richard Rohr states in his Introduction, “There is no such thing as being non-political. Everything we say or do either affirms or critiques the status quo. Even to say nothing is to say something.”

Young Adult Class

This class is not meeting over the summer but will resume when school starts in the Fall. Be on the lookout for our next start date!
